DISCIPLESHIP TIP FROM J. LEE GRADY

The apostle Paul urged the Colossians to be “firmly rooted” in Christ and “established” in faith (Col. 2:7). He also shared his hope that believers in Colossae and Laodicea would be “knit together in love” (v. 2). Paul knew that a strong connection among Christians is vital if we want to mature spiritually. If we have strong bonds with other believers, we will be strong individually.

This is so important today, when many Christians are isolated and lonely. Some believers have quit going to church; they have a “just me and Jesus” attitude. But God doesn’t want us flying solo; Christianity is a team sport. If you want your disciples to grow, make sure they are in a local church and connecting with friends. Just as Jonathan’s soul was “knit” to David’s in 1 Samuel 18:1, God wants to tightly knit us with people who can help us grow. Make sure you are knit!
